The 1975 Spencerville Annual Staff is honored to present the Golden Anniversary edition of the Echoes Yearbook. To help commemorate this occasion a select group of students have dressed in clothes which range over the past fifty years. If you find yourself having trouble with the faces, take a quick glance at the following explanations.

Henry Pratte — a dashing, yet ruthless Gangster from the mid 20's.

Barb Conner — a matronly old lady from the late 40's.

Denice Thompson — a wild, daring Flapper from the 20's.

Cindy Whetstone — a mini-skirted, radical teenager from the 60's.

Riki Stoffer — a girl who is portraying a young chap from the 30's.

Mike Lammers — a Rascal from the "Good old days."

Judy Moorman — an early 1920 straight-laced old lady holding her pet?

LaDonna Mueller, Dave Stahler, and Valerie McCain, all a bunch of Bobbie sockers from the cool 50's. Isn't Dave the whole it?

Dedication

The Yearbook Staff of 1975 is proud to dedicate this year's annual to Mr. Ken Rinehart. Over the years, he has guided us as a class advisor, shared his knowledge with us as a teacher and coach, and as an individual, set an example from which we all have gained. It's with pleasure and gratitude that we say "Thank You."

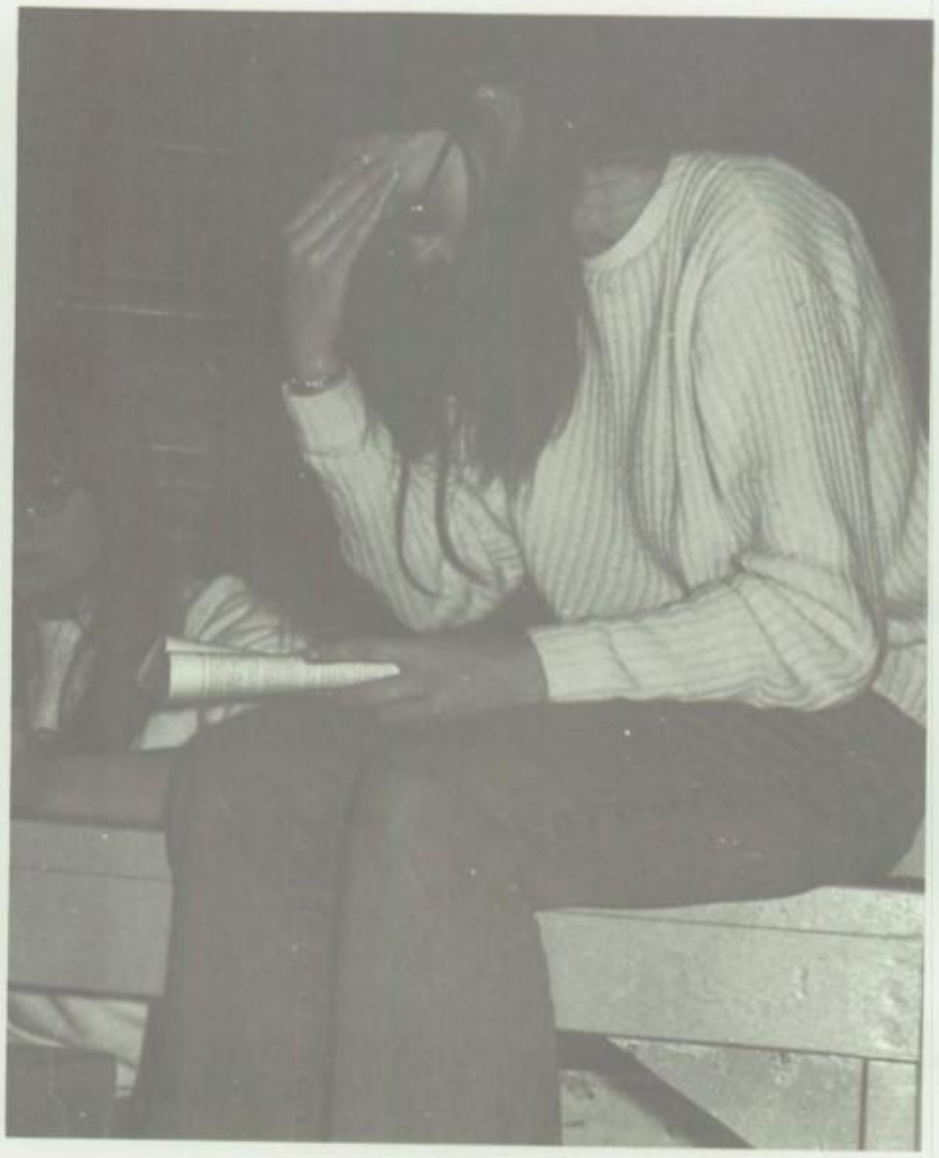
Row 3: Tim Barnes, Bill Klausing, Verna Wireman, Kevin Fosburgh, Rob Youngpeter.

Kiss me you fool!

The wet—head is dead.

Do you think it's big enough?

What's so interesting?



Mary Tyler Moore watch out!

The devil made me do it!

Senior Class Play

Room and Bored

May 16, 1975
